Thomas Pyeroff Esq
 Chief Secretary to Government
 Madras

Sir
 The late Mr A Cole Professor of Fine Arts occupied my House (late Col. Brown's) at 120 Rs a month. he went on leave to the Hills in November last sent my Bills for November and December amounting to 240 Rs to Mr J Wilson there, but he returned them as per enclosed Note, and Mr Cole wrote me 27th ultimo "I find from a letter received a few days back from the Civil Auditor that I cannot receive one Rupee of pay for the three months leave till my return to Madras" As there will be two months pay due to Mr Cole Rs 660 and as West has a prior claim to all others I will feel very thankful if you will be kind enough to allow my claim for two months West as well as what number of days Mr Cole may occupy my House in this month As Mr Cole's Furniture is now there, more so in consequence of my being compelled to leave Madras for the Hills after 40 or less in India not being able to stand the climate any longer. Intend to leave 16th inst Mr
