Kollur 26 January 1860

Sir,

127

From J. Raloff Esquire

Acting Civil and Session Judge of Kollur

To, J. Tyroft Esquire

Chief Secretary to Government Fort St. George

Sir,

In the last Quarter's issue of the Quarterly Army & Civil List published by the officiating Secretary in charge of the Male orphan Asylum, and said to be, (I believe) so published under, and by the sanction and authority, of Government, I perceived Mr. J. J. Knox's name placed, and numbered, above my own - in error, as it ought to be, and has for the last Quarter learn, below it (indeed below, Mr. Gibbs also) - Believing that, although of no great consequence, my interests might, at some time or other, be affected by this misrepresentation if persisted in, seeing that those, prima facie, official guarantees, I at once, addressed Captain Ridout on the subject, requesting the favor of his causing the error corrected in his next (the current) Quarters issue -

That officer, however, having wholly disregarded my Communication and request, and even filling, moreover, to repeat the error complained of, I have no alternative but to submit the same to you, officially - which I have now, according to the favor to do - the solicit the favor of your assistance correction - to express, at the same time, my regret at being thus obliged to trouble you, in so comparatively trifling a matter -

And to be,
