 Sheweth
 That your Memorialist

under Government, in consequence of failure in business, he has to be exempted from passing the Unimproved Service Examination on the following grounds:-

That your Memorialist is an old servant of Government having been employed in different Offices for a period of nearly 15 years; and one who always maintained a character for diligence and efficiency in the performance of his duties.

Your Memorialist first entered the service of Government as a Draughtsman in the Chief Engineer's Office in March 1885 which appointment he held till March 1888.

He was next intrestained as

a Clerk in the Assistant Engineer's Office from April 1888 to April 1891. He was then engaged as a Draughtsman in the Gun Carriage Manufacturing from April 1891 to March 1892.

He afterwards became a successful candidate for the post of Writing Master and Librarian in the then Madras University in which institution he remained till the latter end of 1893. And

He was finally engaged in the Military Architect's General Office, first as an Inspector and subsequently as an Auditor from 31st June 1894 to 31st December 1895.

In consequence of accidents, attendant on frequent changes of residence which your Memorialist has of late been subjected he is able to present only two documents in support of the second and fourth statements but the others may be verified if necessary by reference to ~~Respectable~~ Official Establishments mentioned therein. In each of these capacities your Memorialist gave entire satisfaction and it is his humble prayer that he may not now after the term of his manhood has been spent in the service of Government be compelled to submit to the Test of admission prescribed for those who are candidates for employment in the various Departments of the Public Service.

In conclusion your Memo-rialist begs to observe that he has been informed

89-51
informed that this privilege has been granted in the case of certain quondam servants of Government who have obtained re-employment in the Service, and he therefore craves that the same favor may be extended to him.
For which act of grace, your Memorialist as in duty bound, will ever pray.
