Sir

I have the honor to inform you that the bill of Lading for Electric Telegraph Stores brought out by the "Ceylon" was received in due course, and the vessel has been discharged; but that no document has come to hand to shew what freight is payable, the rate not having been inserted in the bill of Lading. It is usual for the tender to be sent out at the same time, but as this has not been received I beg to inquire if Government have any advice on the subject of the engagement of the "Ceylon", which brought out Electric Telegraph posts.

2 Messrs Dymes & Co, the Agents of the "Ceylon", have produced what purports to be
