No. 16.

Coochpoot, 19th September 1881.

From

A. J. ARBUTHNOT Esq.,

Commissioner for the Uncovenanted
Civil Service Examinations.

To

The Chief Secretary to Government.

Sir,

Adverting to the Proceedings of Government under date the 23th April last, No. 598, sanctioning revised rules for the examination of candidates for employment in the Uncovenanted Civil Service, and directing controlling Board and Heads of Departments, to communicate with me regarding the special tests to be prescribed for particular offices, or classes of offices, in their respective departments, I have the honor to request that you will be good enough to furnish me, at your earliest convenience, with a statement prepared in the annexed form showing the several appointments in your office held by Uncovenanted Servants, the salary attached to each appointment, the nature of the duties, whether, in your opinion, future holders of the appointment should be required to pass a special test before being appointed, and if so, the nature of the test.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

A. J. Arbuthnot

Commissioner for the Uncovenanted
Civil Service Examinations.
