Madras.

Sir,

I have the honor to [illegible]

[illegible] information that the Vaughey Mail despatched from Cuddalore at 4½ P.M. on the 25th instant to Nagapore was attacked by a gang of robbers on the same date at about 11 P.M. near the village of Thiruvattapully a few miles beyond Pollachy, and the whole of the Parcels carried away. The Runner who conveyed the Mail states that he was stripped by eight men who threatened to kill him if he resisted them & so the Mail was taken from him by force. I send herewith the accompanying Franked Telegraph returned to him by the robbers.

A Report of the Robbery was immediately made to the British Resident at [illegible] and my Surveyor is now [illegible] to the contents and value of each Parcel carried away. Further particulars will be communicated shortly.
