wherever this may, see me, it is impossible to imagine the hardships and difficulties I and my poor family are undergoing.

Under such circumstances I respectfully beg to cast myself on Your Excellency's humanity and justice, and humbly pray your Excellency will, often in deliberate consideration of my case, be pleased to see me extricated from my present distress and difficulty, and for which act of kindness and charity, I shall ever pray.

I beg to remain,
Your Excellency's
Your Excellency's most humble
and obedient servant,

G. Perumalswami,

received a Police Summons and was charged with trespass, and on the 11th of Nov. in a police court, I was fined 50 Rupees, which, not being able to pay, I was committed to prison, and finally released me by paying the fine, knowing that it was a mere nominal fine, and that I was not liable to any proceedings in the Government P. P. I was satisfied by the above, but the strength of the Police fine, the Sheriff brought an action against me in the Court of Small Causes, for damages on account of trespass, and received judgment for 150 Rupees, and has issued a writ against me. The object is to show me to be a troublemaker, and obstructive in consequence of the number he has towards him, and to show the same proceedings are his business, and avoid. I have applied to engage the services of a legal adviser, as the Sheriff which he would soon have got the stay. The writ is still in force, and I am being able to pay the amount. I am a poor person in my own house, and am unable to go out to procure a situation. From the above circumstances your Excellency will clearly perceive that I am become the butt end of the law, and having lost my power to support the girls living with the Government P. P., I am now object in doing so, and to make a living to Government and to support the poor widows employed in the Government P. P. I am far from having succeeded remains to be seen, but even the present time, I have been, and am still a great sufferer, out of employ 9 months, the above writ against me to take me up.
