16th January 1868.

Sir,

The Head Return Writer in my Office having died on the 26th December and having been for some time previously unequal to much exertion. The Returns urgently required by the Home Authorities are getting largely in arrears. In this circumstance I hope His Excellency will sanction the appointment of Mr Cabral Hospital Writer attached to H. M. B. 43rd L.I. in room of the Writer in my Office deceased.

Mr Cabral has served as Regimental Hospital Writer for upwards of 19 years and is well deserving of this step of promotion which will add Rupees 10. a month to his pay. Surgeon Barclay has strongly recommended Mr Cabral as worthy of reward for his long, steady, and zealous attention to his duties especially during the late service of 43rd in Central India, and the Commanding Officer of 43rd will I feel sure add his approval.

I have &c
