To, The Acting Deputy Registrar
of the Sudder Courts.

To, T. Pycroft Esquire, Chief Secretary
to Government.

Sir,

With reference to sections 40, Act XXIII of 1861, and section 443, Act XXV of 1861, I am directed by the Judges to request that steps may be taken to have the Calcutta and Bombay Gazettes forwarded to them from time to time as they are published, in order that they may be kept acquainted with the Rules of Practice made and issued by the Sudder Courts in three Presidencies.
The Judges are not aware whether any official Gazette is published by the Government of the North West Provinces, but if so it will be necessary that
