Kinduo.

Cambaries.

Kinduo.

They belong to the Sarkatta Country. Several years ago, some of them left their Country, owing to the famine which existed there; and emigrated into other Districts. They generally reside at some distance from the Villages, and earn their livelihood by living out their huts for the conveyance of grain &c from one place to another and by selling firewood and other articles required for domestic use. Some of the Cambaries are in the habit of committing Gang and Highway robberies. They are generally tall and robust. Many of them are very stout.
