NOTIFICATION.

UNDER the provisions of Section 67, Act No. XVII of 1854 (for the management of the Post Office) the President in Council is pleased to pass the following rules:—

I. No letter in transit through the Post Office shall be detained or opened or delivered to any one but the person to whom it is addressed, or to some one authorized by him to receive it, except by a written order of the Governor General in Council, or of a local Government, or of a Chief Commissioner or Commissioner of a Province, or of a Resident or Governor General's Agent, or by a written order of a District Officer specially authorized by the Governor General in Council or by a local Government in that behalf.

II. Every such written order shall be addressed to the Post Master or Deputy Post Master of the Office at which it is intended to detain or open a letter or letters, and shall specify the name of the person to whom such letter or letters is or are addressed.

III. Whenever such written order is issued, or whenever special authority is given to any District Officer to issue such orders, information shall be given to the Director General of the Post Office by the Government or Officer issuing or giving the same.

IV. No Mails shall on any account be opened except at the Post Office, or be removed from the Post Office. Every order to detain or open a letter or letters shall be delivered to the Post Master or Deputy Post Master at the Post Office, and such letter or letters may thereupon be removed from the Post Office, but no others.

V. Soldiers' letters may be delivered as at present to their Commanding Officer or to any person authorized by him to receive them.
