ASYLUM PRESS OFFICE,

MADRAS, 19 February 1861.

191

SIR,

I am directed by the Board of Governors of the Military Male

The Rt. Rev. the Lord Bishop of Madras.
His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief.
The Director of Public Instruction.
Colonel T. McGoun.
The Reverend T. Deatry.
J. Sanderson, Esq.
Colonel C. A. Dutton.
Mr. J. Higginbottom.

Orphan Asylum to send you the annexed advertisement and Statements of charges, and to request that you will be good enough to employ this Press, which many years ago was established for the benefit of the Military Male Orphan Asylum at Madras, in the execution of such Printing work as may be required for your Department.

Your attention is especially requested to the list of printed Forms, the prices of which have been much reduced in the hope of securing a larger share of support from the Army than the Press has received from it of late years.

The Governors trust that by this and other changes recently introduced, the Press, which for some time past has contributed nothing to the support of the Asylum, will yield a profit to be supplied to the benefit of that important Institution; and in their endeavours to attain this end, the Board of Governors feel that they may rely with confidence on the co-operation of the Officers of the Army.

All orders addressed to "The Superintendent, Asylum Press," will meet with prompt attention.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your very obedient and humble Servant,

Wm. THOMAS,

Superintendent Asylum Press
