To, The Postmaster General
Madras.

Sir, I beg leave to report that an unpaid letter addressed to Mr. Francis Johnson by the Dy. Secretary to Govt. was arrived to this Office from Madras on the 1st Instant, and immediately delivered it to the addressee and collected the postage & Mr. Johnson refused to receive it with a remark that was opened by mistake and refused to state as the letter is not of his own.

I therefore beg to enclose the letter in question for your perusal and disposal and to request your final opinion whether the postage collected on it may be refunded or not.

Yours faithfully,
J. J. Vincent Row
Dy. Postmaster
