Read the following:—

No. 30. Extract, paragraphs 5 to 7, of a Despatch from the Right Honorable the Secretary of State for India, to the address of the Government of Bombay,—No. 62, dated 17th August 1865.

Paragraph 5.—It does not appear from these papers that the family of the late Mr. Oliver have been left in destitute circumstances, and the reasons urged by you, in support of your proposition for the grant to them of a sum of £2400, are not such as to justify an exception to the rule under which pensions, or gratuities, are not awarded to families of Uncovenanted Servants.

Judicial letter dated 13th May 1865, No. 11.

"6. The only exception to the rule is the case of the family of an Uncovenanted Servant who may be "killed in the execution of public duty."

7. The statement in paragraph 5 of your letter, that the gratuity recommended "does not exceed the amount of the gratuity to which Mr. Oliver would have been entitled had he "retired from his office from ill-health before becoming entitled to a pension," appears to have no bearing whatever on the case, and might be equally applied in the case of any Uncovenanted Servant who might die in the service of Government, or who, having retired, did not enjoy his pension for any considerable period.

No. 2571.

ORDERED that a copy of the above be sent to the Governments of Bengal, North-Western Provinces, Punjab, Madras, and the Straits Settlements; to the Accountants General, Bengal, North-Western Provinces, Punjab, Madras, and Bombay; and to the Deputy Accountants General, Central Provinces and Hyderabad.
