I have the honor to forward, herewith, for your sanction, a bill for the expenses incurred by me during my recent journey to and from Madras, to attend the Commission lately ordered by Government in regard to the charges against Mr. E. C. Caldwell, Inspector of Schools.

2. In this bill, I have not stated the various items of my expenditure in Madras, but I am prepared to submit them if required, in which case it will be found that the total amount is slightly in excess of that mentioned in the accompanying bill.
