No. 8. Read the following letter from Assistant Surgeon J. DOUGALL, Acting Civil Surgeon, Vizagapatam, to the Deputy Inspector General of Hospitals, Northern Division, Waltair; dated Vizagapatam, 27th September 1865, No. 145.

With reference to the accompanying retrenchment statement, regarding travelling allowance from Vizagapatam to Vizianagrum (and returning), I beg to submit the enclosed telegram in support of the charge, in order that the sanction of Government may be obtained on the subject.

2. On receipt of this telegram, I at once submitted it to you, and your reply was I "ought to go," as it may be a matter of life and death; so that I had your sanction, as well as permission from the Major General Commanding the Division and the Collector of the District to proceed at once. On my return to Vizagapatam, I acquainted you with the circumstance of the case, and you fully approved of what I had done.

3. A Regimental Officer's wife is entitled to medical aid, and in a case of emergency, where a consultation is deemed necessary, I did not consider that I had any choice but to proceed at once.

Telegram from Surgeon MACKENZIE, Vizianagrum, to Dr. DOUGALL, Waltair.

Will you kindly come up at once. Mrs. Ward dangerous labour. If not, send this to Dr. Dorward to send some one for consultation. 23rd, -4 P. M.

No. 627.

MEMORANDUM.

Transmitted to Secretary, Principal Inspector General, for favorable consideration, and submission to Government. The case proved to be one of life and death, and the lady's life saved by the consultation.
