No. 56. Read the following Proceedings of Government in the Legislative Department.

Reporting receipt of the Governor General's assent to the Towns' Improvement Act. } (Dated 13th November 1865, No. 414).

No. 57. ORDER THEREON, 19th December 1865, No. 1284.

The Towns' Improvement Act having received the assent of the Governor General, the Governor in Council directs that the several Magistrates in this Presidency will submit, with as little delay as possible, a list of the towns in their respective Districts to which they consider it desirable to apply the Act. Each Magistrate should furnish a list of towns containing more than 5000 inhabitants, and in the case of those towns entered in the list to which he may not deem it expedient to apply the Act, the reasons for not applying it should be stated. As regards each town to which it is to be applied, the Magistrate will submit the names of not less than five persons whom he would recommend for the office of Town Commissioner. He will also state, after communicating on the subject with the Superintendent of Police, and with the Medical Officer, where there is one, what sum each Municipality should be required to raise

(a) for the maintenance of the Police Force,

(b) for the purposes described in Clause 2, Section 25 of the Act.

The reports now called for, should be submitted through the Inspector General of Police, who will forward them to Government with his remarks. They should be despatched so as to reach the Inspector General's Office at Madras, not later than the 30th January 1866.
