No. 138. Read the following letter from the Magistrate of Coimbatore, to the Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George; dated Coimbatore, 9th October 1866, No. 108.

With reference to paragraph 2 of the Order of Government, dated 3rd October 1866, No. 987, I beg to inform you that, as far as I have been able to ascertain, none of the Native inhabitants of Coonoor are qualified to serve on the Municipal Commission. They are all petty bazaar-men, butchers, and artisans.

No. 139. ORDER THEREON, 16th October 1866, No. 1059.

Ordered that the Draft Notification received with the letter from the Magistrate of Coimbatore, of the 9th August last, No. 78, be published in the Fort Saint George Gazette.

NOTIFICATION

Fort Saint George, 16th October 1866.

The Governor of Fort Saint George in Council, having resolved to extend the provisions of the Towns' Improvement Act (Madras Act No. X of 1865), in manner hereinafter set forth, doth hereby declare, in accordance with the provisions of Section 4 of the said Act, that the Hill Station commonly called Coonoor, in the District of Coimbatore, in the Presidency of Fort Saint George, and lying within the boundaries hereinafter specified—that is to say

On the East by a line drawn from the Sappers' Burial Ground on the Old Ghat up to Munyappa Row's land adjoining Mr. Wait's plantation, and on to the top of the hill, on the north side of which Mr. Mann's Tea plantation is situated; then along to the top of the hill, and down its slope to the Nullah below Colonel Grant's house, to a point in a line with the house; then along the Nullah to the point at which it turns eastward towards Coonoor. From this turn of the Nullah, the boundary runs in a direct line over the hill to the bridge on the Coonoor and Ootacamund road, in the east side of Wellington, and from the bridge to the Milk Village along its east side, and thence in a direct line to the Kateri stream; then eastward down the stream to the junction of the Kateri and Coonoor streams; then, up the latter stream, to the site of the new Bridge, and from there in a direct line to the Sappers' Burial Ground on the Old Ghat, whence it first started.—

shall be hereafter designated, for the purposes of the said Act, by the name of the "Town of Coonoor," and that all persons residing within the said boundaries shall be deemed to be inhabitants, within the meaning of the said Act, of the said Town of Coonoor. The Governor in Council, in accordance with the provisions of Section 5 of the said Act, doth hereby extend the said Act to the said Town of Coonoor.

2. The Governor in Council, in accordance with the provisions of Section 6 of the said Act, hereby appoints the undermentioned persons, being inhabitants of the said Town of Coonoor, to be Town Commissioners, in addition to the Magistrate of the District of Coimbatore, and the Officer of the Public Works Department in
