Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Department, 6th February 1866.

No. 10. Read the following Telegram from the Right Honorable the Secretary of State for India, to His Excellency the Honorable the Governor in Council, Fort Saint George; dated India Office, London, 1st February 1866.

How many Civil Servants are required to be allotted to Madras in the approaching Examination?

No. 11. ORDER THEREON, 6th February 1866, No. 128.

Communicated to the Accountant General, who is requested to furnish Returns, in the forms A, B, and C, appended to the Proceedings of Government of the 17th October 1864, showing the number of Civil Servants that it will be necessary to send out in the autumn of 1868, with reference to the probable strength of the Service on the 1st January 1869. In preparing these statements, Mr. Lushington will allow for twelve retirements and two deaths between this date and the 1st January 1869, and for the admission of seven Junior Civil Servants in the autumn of 1867.
