Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Department,

29th. December 1866.

Read the following letter from the Municipal Commissioners for the Town of Madras, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George; dated Madras, 26th December 1866.

It is our melancholy duty to report, for the information of Government, the sudden and premature death by drowning of our most worthy and energetic President Lieutenant Colonel John Temple on the evening of Sunday last, the 23rd instant; and in doing so, we desire to place on record our high sense of his services in connection with the Madras Municipality.

2. Colonel Temple's great prudence, untiring patience, and strict impartiality, in the discharge of his arduous and delicate duties, won for him the good opinion and high esteem not only of ourselves, his colleagues, but also of all classes of the community; and his unlooked-for removal from our midst we shall ever consider a public calamity.

(Signed) B. CARDOZO,

(„) S. JESUDASEN,

(„) JANAY JAHAN KHAN,

(„) C. PARDASARDY NAIDOO,

Municipal Commissioners for the Town of Madras.

ORDER THEREON, 29th December 1866, No. 1318.

His Excellency the Governor in Council fully participates in the sorrow expressed by the Municipal Commissioners at the sudden and untimely death of their late President, Lieutenant Colonel John Temple, and in the opinion entertained by them of that Officer's character and services. The deplorable accident by which Lieutenant Colonel Temple lost his life is one which, His Lordship in Council feels assured, has aroused sentiments of deep sympathy and concern among all classes of the community.
