Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Department, 3rd January 1866.

No. 1. Read the following letter from the Postmaster General, to the Secretary to Government, Public Works Department, Fort Saint George; dated Madras, 18th December 1865, No. 6378.

The Executive Engineer at Ootacamund having intimated that the new Court House, &c., at Ootacamund will be completed in two months hence, I have the honor to request that Government will be pleased to order the building now jointly occupied by the Post Office and the Magistrate's Office at that station to be made over for the exclusive use of the Post Office, and that the Executive Engineer may be permitted to estimate for such alterations and additions as may appear necessary to adapt the building for a Post Office and a Postmaster's residence.

Referred to the Public Department.

FORT SAINT GEORGE,
21st December 1865.

(Signed) C. A. ORR, Colonel, R. E.,
Secretary to Government, P. W. D.

No. 2. ORDER THEREON, 3rd January 1866, No. 1.

On the completion of the new Court House at Ootacamund, the building now jointly occupied by the Post Office and the Magistrate's Office at that station, will, as requested, be made over to the Postal Department. Meanwhile, an estimate will be called for in the Department Public Works for the work proposed at the conclusion of the foregoing letter.

During the present epidemic of cholera and dysentery, there is a universal feeling of want for a remedy for the disease.
 The epidemic diseases do not wait for the time of preparation, but they do wait for a well adapted medicine.
