Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Department,

27th February 1866.

No. 93. Read the following letter from the Supervisor, Government Press, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George; dated 22nd February 1866.

I have the honor to report that the amount entered in the Budget for "Contingencies" in this office has been almost all spent, and to request that the Accountant General may be instructed to pass further charges for contingencies against the head "Plant and Stores."

2. I have also the honor to request that when the allowance for "Establishments" is exhausted (as it is rapidly becoming), the charges under this head may be met from other heads which the Accountant General will prescribe, and which will be able to bear the charge.

No. 94. ORDER THEREON, 27th February 1866, No. 204.

The Accountant General will, as proposed, pass charges, in excess of the Budget allowance, for "Contingencies" in the office in question against the Head "Plant and Stores," and those for "Establishments" against such other heads as he may determine.
