Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Department,
8th May 1866.

No. 40. Read the following letter from G. F. GAHAN, Esq., Officiating Natal Emigration Agent, Madras, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George; dated Madras, 4th May 1866.

I expect to despatch the Barque Isabella Hercus to Port Natal, about the 12th instant, with 267 adult emigrants. On her departure, I shall require about eleven thousand Rupees, to meet emigration expenses; I have now at credit of the Natal Government about three thousand Rupees; I have the honor, therefore, respectfully to solicit you will be good enough to obtain the sanction of Government for the sum of eight thousand Rupees to be disbursed to me, on account of the Natal Government.

No. 41. ORDER THEREON, 8th May 1866, No. 467.

With reference to the letter from the Government of Natal, dated 27th September 1865, the Accountant General will arrange for the disbursement to Mr. G. F. Gahan, on account of that Government, of the further sum of Rupees (8000) eight thousand, for the purposes of the Agency, taking from him Bills of Exchange, to that extent, on the Crown Agents, London, at 30 days' sight.
