No. 315.

Dated 11th May 1866, No. 1,524.

CIVIL WORKS, No. 34.

In order to give employment to the working establishments which have been organized at Lovedale for the construction of the Lawrence Asylum buildings, and to prevent, as much as possible, loss of time, the Government are pleased to direct, in continuation of G. O. No. 1,275, dated 24th April 1866, that the erection of the Hospital according to the original plan which has been approved of, shall be at once proceeded with. The Superintending Engineer will accordingly instruct the Officer in charge to commence and carry on the building in question as speedily as possible.
