Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Works Department, 23rd June 1866.

No. 544. Read the following letter from the Secretary to the Government of India, Public Works Department, (Account), to the Secretary to the Government of Madras, Public Works Department, dated Simla, 2nd June 1866, No. 507 A. :—

1. I am directed to acknowledge receipt of your letter No. 1,348, dated 28th April 1866, soliciting sanction to a transfer of Rupees 6,564 from the grant for 1866-67 from "Minor Works, Communications" to that of "Repairs," in order to meet a portion of the allotment assigned to the Municipality for repairs of roads in Madras.

2. In reply, I am to observe that as this allotment has been made for purely Military reasons, the balance of the grant required for the purpose can be assigned from the grant for Repairs Military. I am, therefore, to request that this may be done, it not being desirable to sanction a re-appropriation of Budget credits so early in the year.
