Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Department, 30th January 1866.

No. 96. Read the following letter from the Secretary to the Central Committee for the Paris Exhibition 1867, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George; dated Madras, 27th January 1866, No. 7.

I am informed by the Clerk of the Madras Central Committee for the Paris Exhibition of 1867, who was employed by previous Exhibition Committees in Madras, that two Almirahs, used by the Exhibition Committees of 1859 and 1862, were lately removed from the Sea Custom House to the Madras Central Museum. As these Almirahs will be of value in keeping the Records, &c., of this Committee, I have the honor now to solicit you to direct the Superintendent of the Museum to place them at my disposal for the present.

2. I further beg to state that two Chairs which were also used by the Exhibition Committees of 1859 and 1862, are now lying in the Sea Custom House. These being required for the use of the Committee's Office, I beg you will be good enough to issue instructions to the Collector of Sea Customs to forward them to this Office.

3. With reference to the Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Department, 11th January 1866, I have the honor to acknowledge receipt of a Treasury Order for Rupees 3000, which has been paid, and placed to the credit of this Committee at the Bank of Madras, to be drawn against by cheques signed jointly by the President and Secretary of the Committee for the time being.

4. Adverting to the Order on the above named Proceedings, under date 11th January, No. 30, I have to state that a Circular to the Mofussil Committees is now in preparation, which will draw attention to the suggestions contained in the Memorandum of the Secretary Central Committee in Calcutta.

No. 97. ORDER THEREON, 30th January 1866, No. 90.

Communicated to the Collector of Sea Customs, and to the Superintendent of the Central Museum, who will place the Chairs and Almirahs, referred to in the foregoing letter, at the disposal of the Central Committee for the Paris Exhibition, if they are available.
