Read the undermentioned papers :—

Paragraph 6 of the General Order of the Government of India in the Military Department, No. 370, dated the 4th April 1867, sanctioning the grant of Presidency house-rent, at Staff Corps rates, to Medical Officers serving at Presidency towns and not furnished with public quarters, provided their salaries do not exceed Rupees 1,400 per mensem.

Extract, Military Department, No. 543, dated the 23rd May 1867, observing, with reference to the case of Surgeon J. Fayrer, the Senior Surgeon of the Medical College Hospital, Calcutta, and Professor of Surgery in the College, who draws a salary of Rupees 1050 per mensem in those capacities, and an allowance of Rupees 400 per mensem for the medical charge of the Mysore Princes, that the limit of Rupees 1400 in the Order of the 4th April 1867 mentioned above, "had application to the aggregate salary allotted to an Officer for the substantive, i. e., permanent appointment or appointments (when two or more appointments were combined) that may be assigned to him," but not to "the allowance granted for any temporary or entirely extra charges which may be held by an Officer, and which do not necessarily go with the appointment or be held by his successor, such as the medical charge of the Mysore Princes, the Inspectorship of Emigrants, Dispersaries in Calcutta, &c."

Endorsement from the Home Department, No. 1326, dated the 14th ultimo, forwarding, for consideration and orders, a copy of a letter, and of its enclosures, from the Government of Bengal, submitting Dr. Fayrer's claim to Presidency house-rent, and raising a question whether he should continue to draw the allowance for the medical charge of the Mysore Princes.

Letter to the Accountant General, Bengal, No. 1033, dated the 21st ultimo, sanctioning the grant of Presidency house-rent to Dr. Fayrer and any other Medical Officers in the Civil Department similarly circumstanced.

ORDER.—Ordered that a copy of the foregoing abstract of correspondence, and of the papers received from the Home Department under endorsement No. 1326 of the 14th ultimo, be forwarded to the Foreign Department for consideration of the question raised by the Government of Bengal; and that copies of the foregoing abstract be forwarded to the Home and Military Departments; the Governments of Bengal, Madras, and Bombay; the Comptroller General of Accounts; and the Accountants General in Madras and Bombay.
