The foregoing letter and its enclosure will be referred to the Acting Government Solicitor, who will state whether the proposed Bye-Laws are, in full accordance with Act IX of 1865, and whether he would recommend any alterations in their provisions, or in the terms in which they are framed.

2. I have, in pursuance of the directions of Government, perused and considered the proposed Bye-Laws of the Municipal Commissioners under the Madras Act IX of 1865.

I have, however, been unwilling to alter or add to the original Draft Bye-Laws submitted to the Government by the Municipal Commissioners, and have, therefore, had a copy of the Draft Bye-Laws made, in which I have made, in red-ink, such alterations and suggestions as seemed to me advisable. If the Government should approve of my alterations and suggestions, the copy of the Bye-Laws made by me might be returned to the Municipal Commissioners, for publication, as altered, in the Gazette.

4. I have the honor to return the Proceedings of Government and papers noted in the margin, and to forward herewith the copy of the Bye-Laws made by me, above referred to.
