Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Department, 14th May 1867.

No. 95. Read the following letter from the Under Secretary to the Government of Bombay, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George; dated Bombay Castle, 30th April 1867, No. 1666.

With reference to your letter No. 1150, dated the 12th October 1864, I am directed to forward, for the information of the Government of Madras, the accompanying copy of an application from Mr. J. Hope of the Madras Civil Service, for permission to be re-transferred to the Madras Presidency, and to state that this Government have signified their compliance with this application.

From J. HOPE, Esq., Madras Civil Service, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Bombay, dated Hangal, 13th April 1867.

I have the honor to intimate to you my desire to be re-transferred to my own Presidency of Madras. I believe the exigency of the Bombay service, which called for my transfer in 1864, now no longer exists. The Madras Government letter, informing me of my transfer, stated that it was only temporary, and thus I have all along understood that I must sooner or later return to Madras. Such being the case, I do not consider it advisable to remain too long away from that Presidency. It is evident that, if I am ultimately to become a Madras Collector or Judge, I can qualify myself for such a post much better by filling subordinate appointments in Madras than in Bombay. I may add, that the prospects of Civilians of my standing in Madras are, I believe, better than in this Presidency.

2. Should my application be favorably received by Government, I should esteem it a favor to be allowed to retain my present appointment, until it may please the Madras Government to provide me with a suitable appointment in that Presidency. I do not think the Madras Government will make any objection to this proposal, as there need be no great delay in my proceeding from Dharwar to join any appointment in the Madras Presidency.

No. 96. To the Chief Secretary to the Government of Bombay, dated Fort Saint George, 14th May 1867, No. 550.

In acknowledging the receipt of Mr. Under Secretary Jacomb's letter of the 30th ultimo, No. 1666, forwarding an application from Mr. J. Hope, of the Madras Civil Service, to be re-transferred to the Madras Presidency, and stating that the Government of Bombay have signified their compliance with the application, I am directed to inform you that Mr. Hope has been appointed to be Assistant and to act as Sub-Collector and Joint Magistrate in the Tanjore District, and to request that he may be instructed to proceed to Negapatam as soon as his services in his present appointment can be dispensed with. I am to add that the Madras Government would be glad to have the services of Messrs. Daniell and Stokes replaced at their disposal as soon as the exigencies of the public service will permit.

Chief Secretary.
