No. 121. Read the following letter from the Magistrate of the Godavery District, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George; dated Cocanada, 26th April 1867, No. 89.

I have the honor to state that the Reverend Dr. Murphy, Chaplain at Rajahmundry, objects to pay tax under Schedule A of the Act No. X of 1865, and requests that he may be exempted from assessment for the following reasons, viz., 1st, because the Clerical profession is not taxed; and, 2nd, because he is holding a Military and not a Civil appointment, and that he as a Military Officer subscribes to the Military Fund. I request the opinion and orders of Government on the above points.

2. Copy of the Reverend Dr. Murphy's letter is enclosed.

From the Reverend Dr. J. Murphy, Chaplain of Rajahmundry, to the Municipal Commissioners of Rajahmundry, dated Rajahmundry, 9th February 1867.

I have the honor to call your attention to the fact that I have been taxed under Schedule A of the "Act No. X passed on the 14th October 1865." I paid the amount and now write to appeal.

2. I have corresponded with persons well acquainted with the subject, and have been informed that I am exempt from assessment under the above-named Schedule, 1st, because the Clerical profession is not taxed; and, 2nd, because a Chaplain holds a Military not a Civil appointment. He is under Military regulations, ranks as a Military Officer, and subscribes to the Military Fund. Accordingly the Municipal Commissioners at Madras have not taxed Chaplains under Schedule A of the Act in force at Madras. I request, therefore, that you will be so good as to refer the matter for decision to competent authority.

No. 122. ORDER THEREON, 18th May 1867, No. 563.

It is not the province of the Government to dispose of appeals against taxes imposed under the Towns' Improvement Act.

2. The Reverend Dr. Murphy, if he deems himself aggrieved by any assessment under the Towns' Improvement Act, should appeal to a quorum of the Municipal Commissioners under Sections 69 and 70 of the Act.
