I beg to suggest that the boundaries should be corrected accordingly in a revised Notification.

2. I beg also to submit a revised list of Commissioners, with the reasons for the same, for the consideration and orders of Government.

No. 1 of the subjoined revised list, Major Henry Ambrose Hare, Brigade Major, Vice-President (nominated by Major General W. C. McLeod). I would suggest the re-inclusion of Captain Frederick James Hicks, Superintendent of Police, Bellary—No. 4 in my revised list of 8th December 1866.

Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Department, 27th August 1867.

No. 9 of the list in the Notification dated 25th July 1867, Lieutenant Donald James Sim McLeod, Acting Deputy Assistant Quarter Master General, vice Captain Robert Doveton Thorpe, proceeded to England on sick certificate for 20 months.

No. 14 of the list in the Notification dated 25th July 1867, Mr. James Norton, Merchant, omitted, not being a settled resident, and now absent in Europe.

No. 16 of the list in the Notification dated 25th July 1867, Vellore Lokanatha Moodelliar, omitted, at the request of the Major General Commanding Ceded Districts, as the General has brought to my notice that the said Commissioner evinced no interest, while a Commissioner in the former Municipality of Cowle Bazaar, of which the General was President, and further conducted himself to the dissatisfaction of the other Commissioners.

No. 22 of the list in the Notification dated 25th July 1867, Asoondy Kasava Rau, Town Sub Magistrate of Bellary, omitted—vide concluding portion of paragraph 2 of the Government Proceedings, dated 9th October 1866, No. 1028.
