have the honor to request that the Government will be pleased, temporarily, to exempt the Head Constables, as per margin, from the operation of Government Order of the 23rd October 1866, No. 309, till after the next Uncovenanted Service Examination, when the individuals in question will be replaced by others if they fail to pass the General Test, and so qualify for posts of Rupees 20.

2. I also beg the permission of Government to place P. Murgesa Pillay, now employed as Head Compiler in the Statistical branch of my office, on the salary of Rupees 85 from the 1st proximo, instead of the minimum rate of Rupees 75. He has been in my office for nearly seven years, and has worked well at the statistics for nearly four years. The work is laborious, and has been performed well.

No. 26. ORDER THEREON, 3rd September 1867, No. 1082.

The Governor in Council sanctions, as a special case, the retention on the office establishment of the Inspector General of Police, of the services of these Head Constables, until after the next Uncovenanted Examination.

2. The Governor in Council sanctions, also, the salary of P. Murgesa Pillay, Head Compiler in the Statistical branch of the same office, being raised from Rupees 75 to Rupees 85 per mensem from the 1st September 1867.
