be pleased to obtain the sanction of Government, that he be allowed the privilege of franking all official letters and parcels, &c., as the Deputy Inspectors General of the other Circles, and that his office will be entered in the list of privileged offices, published in G. O. G., 26th May and 8th August 1866, pages 86 and 128.

From Staff Surgeon Major A. SHELTON, M. B., and Principal Medical Officer, British Medical Service, Rangoon, 8th July 1867, No. 10; to the Inspector General, Madras.

I have the honor to request you will be pleased to submit my application to the proper authorities, that the office of the Principal Medical Officer British Medical Service, Burmah, may become "privileged" as regards franking letters and parcels by post. The transmission of books, documents, medicines, &c., to the Out-stations of Tonghoo and Thyetmyo render it desirable that this indulgence be granted.

Referred to the Public Department.

From the Insp. Genl. British Medical Service... Staff Surgeon Major Shelton is the principal Administrative Medical Officer of Her Majesty's British Service in Burmah, and occupies a position analogous with that of a Deputy Inspector General of Hospitals elsewhere, and consequently requires similar facilities in regard to his departmental correspondence.

3rd August 1867.

Memorandum from the Acting Chief Secretary, Fort Saint George, 12th August 1867; to the Military Department.

With reference to paragraph 3 of the letter from the Government of India, embodied in the Proceedings of Government, dated the 17th September 1866, No. 938, it is requested that a statement may be submitted with these letters shewing for one, or two months, the number of letters addressed to, the number received from, the privileged offices, as well as the amount of postage paid thereon by means of service stamps in the office of Inspector General of Hospitals British Burmah.

ORDER, No. 3075, 17th August 1867.

The Inspector General British Medical Service will be good enough to obtain and submit the information required in the foregoing memorandum from the Public Department.
