Dated	13-9-	1967.

Not to be folded or roughly handled

No. 139. Read the following letter from the President of the Municipal Commissions, Godavery District, to the Acting Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George; dated Cocanada, 30th August 1867, No. 31.

I have the honor to forward copies of letters from the Vice-President of the Municipal Commission of Rajahmundry, dated 22nd instant, and to request that the Governor in Council will be pleased to sanction the proposals therein contained. All the bye-laws for which sanction is asked have been passed for the Cocanada Municipality.

Nos. 42 and 43.

From the Vice-President of the Municipal Commission, Rajahmundry, to the President of the Municipal Commissions, Godavery District; dated Rajahmundry, 22nd August 1867, No. 42.

I have the honor to request you will obtain the sanction of Government for putting in force the following bye-laws which have been passed by a Meeting of the Commissioners held upon the 12th August 1867:—

1. No one shall fly a kite, or engage in any other game, in such a manner as to annoy or be likely to endanger the safety of passengers, on the public roads or streets.
2. All carriages and other conveyances shall in meeting draw to the left hand side of the road, and when overtaking draw to the right hand side.
3. Every person within whose premises any animal may die shall, within six hours after its death, either remove the carcass at his own expense, without cutting it up or opening it, to such place as may be set apart by the Commissioners for the reception of carcasses, or report its death to the Conservancy Overseer of the Division within which such premises may be situate, and, in such latter case, shall pay to the said Overseer the expense of removing the carcass, at such rate as the Commissioners may, from time to time, determine.
4. The external walls of houses and yards adjoining the public streets shall be lime-washed once at least annually, unless specially exempted by the Commissioners.
5. Every well shall be fenced by a wall three feet high from the surface of the ground.
6. No grain shall be spread on any public thoroughfare.
7. Every owner, or in his absence the tenant, of a house, shall be held responsible for the repair of the pandal attached to such house, to the satisfaction of the Commissioners.
8. No carriage or jutka shall, after 6½ p. m., in a dark night, drive on a public road without lights.
9. No person shall make use of the pavement or verandah of his house, or of any place not specially intended for such purpose, in front of his house, or by the side of any street, as a stable or stall for keeping horses, ponies, bulls, cows, buffaloes, or any other animals.
10. No person shall dry bratties on the external walls of houses or yards adjoining the public street.
11. No one shall let off fire-works within municipal limits, save at such time, in such manner, and in such places, as is permitted in writing by the Municipal Commissioners.
12. No cattle, goats, or sheep, shall be allowed to go about the thoroughfares and streets unattended, and no horses, cattle, goats, or sheep, shall be picketed in the thoroughfares and streets. Any animals found in the thoroughfares and streets in contravention of this law shall, if the owner cannot at once be found on due inquiry, be sold by auction, in order to defray the fine imposed.
13. Whoever shall commit any breach of any of the foregoing bye-laws, or by neglecting to do any act directed to be done by any such bye-laws, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding 20 Rupees, on conviction before a Magistrate, and, in the case of continuance, to a further penalty, not exceeding 10 Rupees, for every day during which the breach is continued after the conviction for the offence.
14. Persons who have paid taxes leviable under Schedule C and Section 67 of the Act in any Municipality, shall be exempted from the payment of the same tax, for the same period, on their becoming residents in the Municipality of Rajahmundry, on producing receipts for payment in the Municipality in which the taxes were levied.

15. All authenticated copies of original registration or licenses shall be given on the payment of a fee of 4 Annas for each such copy.

16. No more than one payment of toll under Schedule B of Act X of 1865 shall be levied on any carriage, conveyance, or animal entering the municipal limits, in any one period of 24 hours, reckoned from midnight to midnight.

17. The owners of pigs kept within the limits of the Municipality of Rajahmundry are hereby required to keep them always within enclosures. All pigs found straying within the municipal limits, subsequent to the publication of this bye-law, may be at once destroyed.

18. The carcasses of all pigs killed when found straying contrary to bye-law No. 17, shall be removed by, and belong to, the person who has killed them.

From the Vice-President of the Municipal Commission, Rajahmundry, to the President of the Municipal Commissions, Godavery District; dated Rajahmundry, 22nd August 1867, No. 43.

I have the honor to request that you will be good enough to forward to Government the name of Captain W. Robertson, Superintendent of Police, as a Municipal Commissioner, in addition to those already named for Rajahmundry, as he has been for a considerable time a resident, and takes a great interest in the place, and would, therefore, be a most useful member.

No. 140. ORDER THEREON, 13th September 1867, No. 1148.

In accordance with Section 145 (Madras) Act X of 1865, the Governor in Council approves and confirms the bye-laws submitted with the foregoing letter, and directs that the same be published in the Godavery District Gazette for a period of one month.

2. With reference to the Notification published in the Fort Saint George Gazette of the 14th June 1867, and under the provisions of Section 6 of the Towns' Improvement Act (X of 1865), the Governor in Council hereby appoints Captain Wheatley Robertson, Superintendent of Police, Godavery District, to be an additional member of the Commission for the Town of Rajahmundry.
