Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Department, 4th January 1867.

No. 20. Proceedings of Government, dated 4th January 1867, No. 11.

The Governor in Council, considering it desirable that the President of the Board of Municipal Commissioners for the Town of Madras shall be in a position to devote his whole time to the duties of the office, has deemed it proper to fill the vacancy created by the death of the late Lieutenant Colonel Temple by the appointment of a gentleman who holds no other office or occupation. Colonel C. A. Denison, late of Her Majesty's 52nd Regiment, has accordingly been appointed President of the Municipal Board, and, under the provisions of Section 9, Madras Act IX of 1865, his salary has been fixed at Rupees (12,000) twelve thousand per annum.
