Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Department.

29th October 1867.

No. 250. Read the following letter from the Sheriff of Madras, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George ; dated Madras, 3rd October 1867, No. 352.

I have the honor to transmit herewith an application from C. Moorrooga Pillay, a writer in the Mofussil Department of the Sheriff's Office, and to recommend his case to the favorable consideration of Government.

From C. MOORROOGA PILLAY, to the Sheriff of Madras; dated Madras, 13th September 1867.

Adverting to paragraph 1 of the Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Department, under date the 29th July 1867, No. 925, which runs as follows :—

“ Moorrooga Pillay's service during the time that he was paid from the monthly allowance formerly drawn by the Sheriff, and subsequently when he was paid from the consolidated allowance granted to the Sheriff, cannot be counted towards pension —”

I humbly, therefore, beg to bring to your notice that in the year 1841, upon the application to Government of Major D. Montgomerie, the then Sheriff, acquainting the Government that Act XXIII of 1840 would impose heavy additional duties in his office, to which his then establishment was inadequate, and that he might be authorized to entertain such additional servants as might be absolutely necessary for the due execution of such duties, the Government answered in reply that “ the Government of India, in consideration of the expense, trouble, and responsibility, which will be incurred in respect of processes served under Act XXIII of 1840, have assigned in remuneration a salary in lieu of all fees, which has been for the present fixed at 200 Rupees per mensem, but is to be open to alteration after six months.” Then the said Sheriff had engaged extra establishment subject to the word expense expressed by the Government of India quoted as above, and conducted the duties under the said Act XXIII of 1840, which is still continued by his several successors, as the said Act is in existence and in operation, but no correspondence had gone on between any of the Sheriffs and the Government on the subject of the said extra establishment being amalgamated with the permanent one. If there had been correspondence between the Sheriff and the Government on account of the extra establishment being made permanent one, the Government would have granted the request of the Sheriff as they did with regard to the stationery as well as the office furniture, &c., required for that branch of the Mofussil Department. This would have been done, had the office of the Sheriff been a permanent one, but not subject to annual change of masters.

2. Under these circumstances, I am at a loss to understand that, after devoting much of my life-time in serving in a public office, and getting my small income from Government through the medium of the Sheriff, how and when shall I make good my past services if the Government do not allow the length of my service to be counted towards pension ; or is it possible for me now, though I might perchance get a Government berth, to serve them for such a period as to entitle me for pension. I, therefore, humbly submit this in the shape of my humble prayer, with a request that you will forward the same to Government with your recommendation supporting my case to the justice, and obtain sanction granted for reckoning my service as a special one.

No. 251. ORDER THEREON, 28th October 1867, No. 1338.

The Government decline to issue any order in the case of Moorrooga Pillay's claim to count certain service as qualifying for pension, other than that already passed on the 29th of July last.

The Honorable A. J. Arbutnot
Chief Secretary to Government Fort Saint George

Sir,

I have the honor to transmit herewith an application from G. Moorooga Pillay, a writer in the Mofussil Department of the Sheriff's Office and to recommend his case to the favorable consideration of Government.

I have the honor to be,

H. D. E. Dalrymple Esquire
Sheriff of Madras.

Honored Sir,

Adverting to Para 1 of the Proceedings of the Madras Government in Public Department under date the 29th July 1867 N^o 925 which runs as follows.

"Moorogga Pillay's service during the time that he was paid from the monthly allowance formerly drawn by the Sheriff, and subsequently when he was paid from the consolidated allowance granted to the Sheriff cannot be counted towards Pension. I humbly therefore beg to bring to your notice, that in the Year 1841 upon the application to the Government of Major D. Montgomery, the then Sheriff, acquainting the Government that in act XXIII of 1840 would impose heavy additional duties in his office, to which his then establishment, was inadequate, and that he might be authorized to entertain such additional servants as might be absolutely necessary for the due execution of such duties. The Government answered in reply that "The Government of India in consideration of the expense, trouble and responsibility, which will be incurred in respect of processes served under act XXIII of 1840 have assigned in remuneration a salary in lieu of all fees, which has been for the present fixed at in 200 Rupees per mensem, but is to be open to alteration after 6 months." Then the Transmit and application from C. Moorogga Pillay, a writer in his Office and recommends his case that he may be considered to the favorable consideration of Govt.

Said Sheriff had engaged Extra Establishment subject to the word Expense expressed by the Government of India quoted as above and conducted the duties under the said Act ~~XXXIII~~ of 1840 which is still continued by his several successors as the said Act is in existence and in operation but no correspondence had gone on between any of the Sheriffs and the Government on the subject of the said Extra Establishment being amalgamated with the permanent ones. If there had been correspondence between the Sheriff and the Government on account of the Extra Establishment being made permanent one, the Government would have granted the request of the Sheriff as they did with regard to the Stationery as well as the Office furniture &c. required for that branch of the Muzasil Department. That would have been done, had the Office of the Sheriff been a permanent one but not subject to annual change of Masters.

Under these circumstances, I am at a loss to understand that after devoting much of my life time in serving in a public Office and getting my small income from Government through the medium of Sheriff, how and when shall I make good my past services, if the Government do not allow the length of my service to be counted towards Pension or is it possible for

for me now, though I might perchance get a Government berth to serve them for such a period as to entitle me for pension. I therefore humbly submit this in the shape of my humble prayer with a request that you will forward the same to Government with your recommendation supporting my case to the justice and obtain sanction granted for reckoning my service as a special one.

I beg to remain,
Honored Sir,

Your Most Obedient Servant,
