No. 267. Read the following letter from the President of the Municipal Commissions, Godavery District, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George ; dated Cocanada, 9th October 1867, No. 47.

I have the honor to forward list of proposed bye-laws, together with a copy of letter from the Vice-President of the Ellore Municipality, and to request that the Governor in Council will be pleased to sanction them. All these bye-laws have been sanctioned for the Cocanada Municipality.

From the Vice-President of the Municipal Commission, Ellore, to the President of the Municipal Commission, Godavery District ; dated Ellore, 28th September 1867, No. 30.

The Municipal Commissioners of Ellore, at a Meeting held on the 20th September 1867, having agreed that it is desirable to have the whole of the bye-laws enacted for the Cocanada Municipality, and published in the 1st Supplement to the District Gazette, dated the 20th July 1867, extended to the Municipality of Ellore, I have the honor to request you will obtain the sanction of Government to that end.

BYE-LAWS.

1. No one shall fly a kite, or engage in any other game in such a manner as to annoy or be likely to endanger the safety of passengers, on the public roads or streets.
2. All carriages and other conveyances shall in meeting draw to the left hand side of the road, and when overtaking draw to the right hand side.
3. Every person within whose premises any animal may die shall, within six hours after its death, either remove the carcass at his own expense, without cutting up or opening it, to such place as may be set apart by the Commissioners for the reception of carcasses, or report its death to the Conservancy Overseer of the Division within which such premises may be situate, and, in such latter case, shall pay to the said Overseer the expense of removing the carcass, at such rate as the Commissioners may from time to time determine.
4. The external walls of houses and yards adjoining the public streets shall be lime-washed once at least annually, unless specially exempted by the Commissioners.
5. Every well shall be fenced by a wall three feet high from the surface of the ground.
6. No grain shall be spread on any public thoroughfare.
7. Every owner, or, in his absence, the tenant of a house, shall be held responsible for the repair of the panal attached to such house, to the satisfaction of the Commissioners.
8. No carriage, jutka, or hackery shall, after 6½ p.m., in a dark night, drive on a public road without lights.
9. No person shall make use of the pavement or verandah of his house, or of any place not specially intended for such purpose, in front of his house, or by the side of any street, as a stable or stall for keeping horses, ponies, bulls, cows, buffaloes, or any other animals.
10. No person shall dry bratties on the external wall of houses or yards adjoining the public streets.
11. No one shall let off fireworks within municipal limits, save at such time, in such manner, and in such places as is permitted in writing by the Municipal Commissioners.
12. The time for killing sheep on the ground set apart as slaughter houses shall be between 5 and 8 in the morning and 4 to 6 in the evening.
13. No cattle, goats, or sheep shall be allowed to go about the thoroughfares and streets unattended, and no horses, cattle, goats, or sheep, shall be picketed in the thoroughfares and streets. Any animals found in the thoroughfares and streets in contravention of this law shall, if the owner cannot at once be found on due inquiry, be sold by auction, in order to defray the fine imposed.
14. Whoever shall commit any breach of any of the foregoing bye-laws by doing any act prohibited by any such bye-laws, or by neglecting to do any act directed to be done by any such bye-laws, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding 20 Rupees, on conviction before a Magistrate,
