Proceedings of the Madras Government, Legislative Department, 23rd October 1867.

No. 7. Read the following Despatch from the Right Honorable the Secretary of State for India, to His Excellency the Right Honorable the Governor in Council, Fort Saint George; dated India Office, London, 14th September 1867, No. 1.

The Despatch of your Excellency in Council, dated 6th June, No. 7 of 1867, (Public Department), relative to the measures proposed by the Government of Bengal in connection with the Madras Act, No. V of 1866, for regulating the engagements of Native inhabitants of the territory subordinate to Fort Saint George, contracting to labor in parts of India beyond the limits of the Presidency of Madras, has been considered by me in Council.

2. Your Excellency in Council states that the "Act at present is inoperative, "there being no resort of laborers from this Presidency (Madras) to the Tea Districts of Bengal;" but, in a report on the Sylhet Tea gardens, received from the Government of India, the following statement occurs:—"There was undoubtedly a large mortality here (Cherragong), but the men who died belonged all to one batch of Madrassees, who never thrive in Eastern Bengal." In another statement, relative to Durrung, the Madras coolies are entered as amounting to 316 men, 10 women, 38 boys, and 50 girls. I desire to be furnished with some explanation of the apparent discrepancy which is thus indicated.

No. 8. ORDER THEREON, 23rd October 1867, No. 221.

The foregoing Despatch from the Right Honorable the Secretary of State for India will be communicated to the several Protectors of Laborers, for report as to whether there has been any recruitment of laborers for employment in the Tea Districts of Bengal in their respective Districts since the 1st November 1866, the date on which Madras Act V of 1866 came into operation. It is presumed that the Madras Coolies referred to in paragraph 2 of the Despatch belonged to the batches of those who were taken to Calcutta from Madras and Cocanada in 1865, or before the passing of that enactment.
