Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Department,
12th November 1867.

No. 81. Proceedings of Government, dated 12th November 1867, No. 1418.

As it is not intended at present to employ steam power in the Government Printing Office, and as the steam engine intended for that office has since many years been transferred to the Public Works Department, the shafting by which motion was to have been communicated to the printing machines is no longer required for the purpose for which it was obtained, and will be handed over to the Public Works Department, for use in the Workshop at Chepauk, where it is understood that shafting is needed.
