Ordnance Department.

With reference to paragraph 4, of the Proceedings of Government, No. 726, dated 18th July 1866, I have now the honor to report that the experience of the past six months points to the month of September as being the best, on the whole, for the annual taking of stock in the Stationery Depot.

2. By this month the packing and despatch of stores for the current year will have been completed, and part of the office can be spared from other work to aid the Examining Officer, while the stock itself will, at this period of the year, be reduced to its lowest condition, viz., that sufficient as a reserve.

3. With reference to paragraph 5, of the Proceedings of Government quoted above, I enclose a list of the surplus articles which have not yet been applied for by Departments, and I have now to solicit the orders of Government for their disposal.

No. 62. ORDER THEREON, 13th February 1867, No. 155.

Ordered accordingly that the stock in the Stationery Depot be taken annually in the month of September, and that Mr. T. E. Greenfield, Assistant Pay Examiner, be deputed for that duty.

2. Ordered, also, that the surplus articles enumerated in the list submitted with the foregoing letter, be sold by public auction.
