No. 96. Read the following letter from Native Surgeon J. RAJANDRUM, to the Deputy Inspector General of Hospitals, Indian Medical Department, Presidency Division; dated Madras, 23rd November 1867, No. 48.

I respectfully beg to bring to your notice that, on account of my late father's landed property at Trichinopoly, which I wish now to claim, I feel necessitated to take my real surname. I, therefore, earnestly beseech the favor of your kindly submitting this my application to the Inspector General, Indian Medical Department, for altering my present surname to that of my real one, viz., from J. Ignatius Rajandrum to J. Rajandrum Ignatius.

2. I beg to add that, when I was first entertained as Unpaid Candidate at Trichinopoly, my own Christian name, Rajandrum, has, through the mistake of the then Superintending Surgeon's writer, been entered in the list for my surname Ignatius.

We, the undersigned, do hereby solemnly certify that, to the best of our knowledge and understanding, we know and are acquainted with the late Mr. Orghan Ignatius, the father of Mr. John Rajandrum Ignatius, Native Surgeon, but who is now called John Ignatius Rajandrum.
