Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Department, 27th February 1867.

No. 150. Read the following letter from Mr. C. J. JUDGE, Madras, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George; dated Saint Thomé, 2nd February 1867.

I trust I may not be considered obtrusive in craving your attention for a few moments to the following particulars of my case, which I humbly hope will meet with your kind consideration.

2. I was entertained in Government service on the 1st March 1857, and resigned at my own request on the 3rd October 1866. During this period I held (consecutively) the several posts noted on page 3 of my testimonials, which I herewith enclose.

3. Some time after my resignation I learnt that, should I remain unemployed for a twelve-month, my former services would not count for pension. This was in the end of November last, and being unemployed I accordingly resolved to go up for the next Uncovenanted Civil Service Examination, but could not register my name, as I was unfortunately (ten days) too late; the books for the registering of names, &c., having been closed on the 20th of the above-mentioned month. Had I been aware that there was a Notification to this effect, I would not have lost so favorable an opportunity.

4. I have mentioned the above facts to show that it was not my intention to evade the test for the above examination, in passing which I am perfectly sanguine, as it is but an Elementary one.

5. I was educated in the (late) Vepery Grammar School, and subsequently in the Madras University (in 1855), when you were the Secretary to this Institution.

6. Eager as I am in seeking employment, my anxiety is increased in having a family to support.

7. Under the circumstances alluded to in paragraph 3 of my letter (unless I am exempted), I will have to wait till February 1868, for the next examination, up to which time I will not only be precluded from being re-entertained in Government employ, but will be obliged to forfeit all claim on my former services, extending over a period of nine years and seven months.

8. It is under these painful circumstances that I now apply to be exempted from the Uncovenanted Civil Service Examination, and I humbly trust that my earnest request may be complied with.

No. 151. ORDER THEREON, 27th February 1867, No. 215.

The Governor in Council will not object to the appointment of Mr. Judge to any office for which a Special Test is not prescribed, subject to his passing the General Test at the Examination in 1868.

(True Extract).

TESTIMONIALS
MR. CHARLES JAMES JUDGE.

MADRAS, 28th November 1858.

I do hereby certify that I have known Mr. C. J. JUDGE for a considerable period, and know him to be a most respectable, steady, and well-conducted young man.

He writes a good and fluent hand, has a good knowledge of accounts, and I am sure would give satisfaction in any office in which he might be employed.

He is the son of an old and respectable man, for many years both in the Military and Civil Services of the Government.

(Signed) A. C. SILVER, Colonel.

ROYAPETTAH POLICE COURT,
23rd February 1861.

This is to certify that Mr. CHARLES JAMES JUDGE was entertained as a writer in my office on the 1st March 1857, and continued his services as clerk under me until the 20th October 1859 when he was at my request, made a Constable in the Madras Police.

Mr. JUDGE writes a good hand, and gave me satisfaction during his period of service.

His father is a highly respectable old servant of the Government whom I have known for many years, and I shall be glad to hear of the son's advancement.

(Signed) H. COLBECK, Lieut.-Colonel,
Senior Magistrate of Police

3. Above the ^{former} resignation, I learnt, that should I remain unemployed for a twelve-month, my former Services would not count for pension. This was in the end of November last, and being unemployed, I accordingly resolved to go up for the next Uncovered C. A. Examination, but could not register my name, as I was unfortunately (two 10 days) too late; the books for the registering of names, &c, having been closed on the 20th of the above-mentioned month. Had I been aware, that there was a notification to this effect, I would not have lost so favorable an opportunity.

4. I have mentioned the above facts, to show, that it was not my intention to evade the test for the above examination, in passing which, which, I am perfectly sanguine, ^{is} it is but an elementary one.

5. I was educated in the late ^{late} Vepery Grammar School, and subsequently in the Madras University, (in 55) when you were the Secretary to the Institution.

6. Eager as I am, in seeking employment, my anxiety is increased, in having a family to support.

7. Under the circumstances alluded to, in para 3, of my letter, (unless I am exempted), I will have to wait till Feb^y 1868 (for the next examination) up to which time, I will not only be precluded from being re-entrained in your employ, but will be obliged to forfeit all claim on my former services, extending over a period of 9 years and 7 months.

8. It is under these ^{circumstances} painful peculiar circumstances, that I now apply to be exempted from the Unconquered C. & Co. Examination, and I humbly trust, that my earnest request, may be complied with.

I have the honor to be
