No. 18. From the President of the Municipal Commission, Cuddapah, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George ; dated Cuddapah, 6th February 1867, No. 62.

In accordance to Section 145 of the Towns' Improvement Act, I have the honor to submit, at the request of the Municipal Commissioners for the Town of Cuddapah, the enclosed Bye-laws, for the approval and confirmation of His Excellency the Governor in Council.

BYE-LAWS.

Bye-laws for the regulation of offensive and dangerous trades.

Every owner or occupier of any place within the Municipal limits used for any of the purposes specified in Section 114 of the Towns' Improvement Act, X of 1865, shall remove, or cause to be removed, once at least in every 24 hours, all filth, dirt, and refuse, which, at the time of every such removal, shall be in or about any such place, and shall cause such filth, dirt, or dust, to be deposited in such places as the Commissioners may approve of.

Bye-laws for the regulation of order in the public thoroughfare.

No Carriage, Jutka, or Hackery shall, after 6½ p. m., in a dark night, drive on a public road without light.

2. All carriages and carts shall, in meeting other conveyances, leave them to the right-hand side ; and, in passing them, leave them to the left-hand side.

3. Every person within whose premises any animal may die, shall, within six hours after its death, either remove the carcass at his own expense, without cutting it up or opening it, to such place as may be set apart by the Commissioners for the reception of such carcasses, or report its death to the Conservancy Overseer of the Division within which such premises may be situated, and, in such latter case, shall pay to the said Overseer the expense of removing the carcass, at such rate as the Commissioners may, from time to time, determine.

4. The external walls of houses and yards adjoining the public streets shall be lime-washed once at least annually, or oftener as the Commissioners may think it necessary.

5. The owners of pigs kept within the limits of the Municipality are required to keep them always within enclosures. All pigs found straying within the Municipal limits, subsequent to the publication of this Bye-law, may be at once destroyed.

6. No person shall make use of the pavement or verandah of his house, or of any place not especially intended for such purpose, in front of his house, or by the side of any street, as a Stable or Stall for keeping horses, ponies, bulls, cows, buffaloes, or any other animals.

7. Whoever shall commit any breach of any of the foregoing Bye-laws, by doing any act prohibited by any such Bye-law, or by neglecting to do any act directed to be done by any such Bye-law, or in any wise howsoever, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding Rupees 20, and, in the case of a continuing breach, to a further penalty not exceeding Rupees 10, for every day during which the breach is continued after the conviction for such offence, agreeably to Section 143 of the Towns' Improvement Act, No. X of 1865.
