To

THE GOVERNOR OF MADRAS.

The Memorial of JACOB EZRA JUDAH
a Native of Bagdad in Arabia, 30 years of age, Merchant by Trade or Profession, residing at Moor Street, No. 43,
Black Town, opposite the Tannah,
Madras.

Your Memorialist left his country in 1852, and traded in India, Bombay, Agra, Calcutta, and Singapore, and now since 6 months at Madras; and as Memorialist likes to live in Her Majesty's country, and to trade at that place, Memorialist, therefore, humbly prays that your Excellency may grant to him the act of Naturalization, as per Act XXX of 1852.

And as in duty bound will ever pray.

MADRAS,

[Signature].

26th February 1867.

I, Jacob Ezra Judah, a Native of Bagdad in Arabia, and a Jew by birth, now residing in Moor Street, No. 43, Black Town, opposite to the Odacall Tannah of Madras, do swear that I will be faithful, and bear true allegiance to the Sovereign of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and of these Territories as dependent thereon, and that I will be true and faithful to the Crown, and all Officers under its authority.
