Read the following :—

No. 57. Despatch from the Right Honorable the Secretary of State for India, to His Excellency the Right Honorable the Governor General of India in Council; dated India Office, London, 8th April 1867, No. 14.

Legislative.

The Despatch of your Excellency in Council, dated 11th February (No. 1) 1867, forwarding the remarks of the Government of Bengal on the Madras Act for regulating the manner of engaging and contracting with laborers in Madras for employment in the Tea Districts of Bengal, has been considered by me in Council.

2. The suggestions of the Lieutenant Governor of Bengal appear to me to be judicious; and they will, I am confident, receive every consideration from the Government of Madras. It would, however, have been the preferable course for the Madras Government to have consulted the authorities in Bengal before passing the Act in question.

His Excellency
The Right Honorable
The Governor General of India
in Council

Sir,

1 The Despatch of your Excellency in Council dated 11th February (No. 1) 1867, forwarding the remarks of the Government of Bengal on the Madras Act for regulating the manner of engaging (and contracting) with laborers in Madras for employment in the Sea Districts of Bengal, has been considered by me in Council.

2 The suggestions of the Lieutenant Governor of Bengal appear to me to be judicious, and they will, I am confident receive every consideration from the Government of Madras. It would, however, have been the preferable course for the Madras Govt. to have consulted the authorities in Bengal before passing the Act in question.
