No. 154. Read the following letter from the Magistrate of North Arcot, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George; dated Tirtanni, 13th December 1866, No. 80.

In their Proceedings, dated 22nd November 1866, No. 1206, Government have been pleased to appoint the several Magistrates in this Presidency, and in their absence, their Senior Assistants, to be Protectors of Laborers, to carry out the purposes of the "Labor Contracts Act" within their respective Districts.

2. The Head Quarters of the Magistrate and his Senior Assistant are, as Government know, at Chittoor, which is the centre of a purely agricultural population, and distant from the parts of the District adjoining both Lines of Railway, where operations under the Act will be in fullest activity.

3. These tracts of country lie wholly within the Division of the Joint Magistrate, Head Assistant Magistrate, and Deputy Magistrate in charge of Zemindary Tracts, whose Head Quarters are respectively, Vellore, Raneepett, and Naggari, on the North-West Line of Railroad.

4. Under Section 3 of the Act, the Government have power to appoint these three Officers, Protector of Laborers, and I would, therefore, respectfully suggest that, for the convenience of all parties, and the fuller enforcement of the provisions of the Act, the three aforesaid Officers should be appointed Protectors of Laborers within their respective Divisions.

No. 155. ORDER THEREON, 18th January 1867, No. 74.

The Governor in Council does not think it necessary at present, to appoint any other Officers to be Protectors of Laborers in the District of North Arcot.
