Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Department,

2nd July 1867.

Read the following papers:—

No. 20. From the President of the Municipal Commissions, Tanjore District, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George; dated Negapatam, 10th May 1867, No. 137.

In accordance with Section 145 of Act X of 1865, I have the honor to forward, for approval and confirmation by the Governor in Council, the following Bye-laws, which have been made by the Municipal Commissioners for the town of Combaco-num.

Bye-laws for the regulation of Markets and Slaughter-houses.

1. Markets for the sale of meat, fish, and vegetables shall be limewashed, within and without, once at least in every six months.
2. Stalls for the sale of meat and fish shall be washed, and all stalls and gangways swept, and the refuse removed therefrom, once at least daily, at such times as the Commissioners shall direct, and deposited at such places as the Commissioners may direct or approve of.
3. Every slaughter-house shall be thoroughly washed and swept, once at least daily, at such times as the Commissioners may fix.

Bye-laws for the regulation of order in the public thoroughfare.

1. Every person within whose premises any animal may die shall, within six hours after its death, either remove the carcass at his own expense, without cutting it up or opening it, to such places as may be set apart by the Commissioners for the reception of such carcasses, or report its death to the Conservancy Overseer of the Division within which such premises may be situate, and, in such latter case, shall pay to the said Overseer the expense of removing the carcass, at such rate as the Commissioners may, from time to time, determine.
2. Every well shall be fenced by a wall three feet high from the surface of the ground.
3. Every tank shall be enclosed by a fence or wall.
4. Pigs found straying in the streets will be seized and killed.

Bye-laws for the regulation of offensive and dangerous trades.

1. Every owner or occupier of any place within the municipal limits used for any of the purposes specified in Section 114 of the Towns' Improvement Act, X of 1865, shall remove, or cause to be removed, once at least in every twenty-four hours, all filth, dirt, and refuse which at the time of every such removal shall be in or about any such place, and shall cause such filth, dirt, or dust to be deposited in such place as the Commissioners may approve of.

Bye-laws for the regulation of order in the rivers.

1. No person shall commit a nuisance in the beds of the Cauvery and Arasalar rivers within the municipal limits.
2. No person shall wash cattle or other animals in the Cauvery and Arasalar rivers within the municipal limits.

Whoever shall commit any breach of any of the foregoing Bye-laws, by doing any act prohibited by any such Bye-laws, or by neglecting to do any act directed to be done by any such Bye-laws, or in any wise howsoever, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding 20 Rupees, and, in the case of a continuing breach, to a further penalty, not exceeding 10 Rupees, for every day during which the breach is continued after the conviction for such offence.

Referred to the Sanitary Commissioner, for his remarks on such of the Bye-laws as relate to sanitary conservancy.

FORT SAINT GEORGE,
11th June 1867.
