I have the honor to enclose for your information the accompanying copy of Memorandum,† No. 247, dated 1st August 1866, from the Chief Secretary to Government, authorizing the supply of Camp equipage on my tour in the distressed Districts of North Arcot and Salem. I presume that this authority equally extends to the supply of means for the carriage of the tents.

2. I subsequently found that I should not require tents and carriage for them through the North Arcot and Salem Districts, as I travelled with the District Officers.

3. It was not, therefore, till I reached Bellary that I required the Government tents and carriage which were supplied by order of the General Commanding upon a requisition contained in a letter† addressed by me to you.

† No. 266A, dated 23rd October 1866.

4. I beg to point out that the carriage supplied was solely for the tents furnished from the Government Camp Equipage.

The tent furniture supplies and my personal baggage were all carried on carts, for which I myself paid.

5. Under these circumstances, I do not think that the Government would object to the employment by me, while on special duty, of the public cattle, and I would suggest that if under this explanation any further doubt is entertained, a reference should be made to Government.
