Read the following papers:—

No. 289. From C. MOOROOGA PILLAY, Writer on the Establishment of the Sheriff of Madras, to the Sheriff of Madras; dated Madras, 3rd April 1867.

With reference to the Notification published in the Fort Saint George Gazette,*

* 4th March 1858, page 395.

relative to the Uncovenanted Civil Service Examination, servants above the grade of peons in the Government Service and whole establishments of such office were, before the year 1859, when the above examination came into operation, considered eligible for the Government Service, and were accordingly exempted from passing the said examination.

2. Since August 1855, during your Shrievalty, I have been employed in the Mofussil Department of the Sheriff, and paid from and out of the allowance allowed by the Government on account of the execution of Mofussil process, under Act XXIII of 1840, also discharging other duties entrusted to my charge, in addition to the Mofussil business, in consequence of the increase of business in the Sheriff's Department after the amalgamation of the Courts; and, moreover, I am also in charge of accounts of the Sheriff with the several Attorneys of the High Court on account of fees payable to Government in execution of the above process issued by the High Court, and also rendering such assistance as may be required to others in the office, and more especially during the quarterly Criminal Sessions.

3. As regards my qualification in the official branch of business, I humbly beg to refer you to E. W. Shaw, Esquire, the present and long standing work demanding gentleman (Deputy Sheriff) in the office, who, I believe, beyond all doubt, will bear testimony in support of my statement, besides certificates of my character granted by several employers, copies of which are herewith annexed.

4. I now beg to bring to your notice that, when the late Sudder and Supreme Courts were amalgamated, some of the clerks of the late Supreme Court and of the offices of the Interpreter, Chief Clerk of the Insolvent Court, &c., were paid from and out of the fees allowed by Government, and these have all been exempted by Government from passing the Uncovenanted Civil Service Examination, and their former services before the amalgamation of the said Courts reckoned for pension, which privilege and exemption may also be extended to the Mofussil branch of the Sheriff's Department, which is a separate establishment in itself, but connected with the High Court, Original Side.

5. Under all these circumstances, I humbly beg you will be good enough to recommend my case to Government through the Chief Secretary, and have me exempted from passing the above examination, and my former service in the Mofussil Department may be reckoned for pension, for which act of kindness I shall, as in duty bound, ever pray.

MEMORANDUM.

The enclosed petition is referred to the Chief Secretary to Government.

Referred to the Examiner of Claims for report.

FORT SAINT GEORGE,
14th May 1867.

(Signed) A. J. ARBUTHNOT,
Chief Secretary.

No. 290. No. 547.

The service of the petitioner cannot be verified from the records of this office, as he appears, from the accompanying correspondence, not to have been paid from the amount sanctioned by Government for the permanent establishment, but, in the first place, from the monthly allowance of Rupees 200 formerly drawn by the Sheriff, and, latterly, by the Sheriff out of his consolidated salary.

To the Chief Secretary to Government.

From the Sheriff of Madras, to the Examiner of Claims, Fort Saint George; dated Madras, 10th July 1867, No. 241.

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your Memorandum of the 7th instant, No. 478.

2. C. Moorogoo Pillay alleges that the statement made in paragraph 4 of his petition was based upon information he obtained from certain employes of the late Supreme Court who were placed upon the fixed establishment of the High Court under the arrangements sanctioned in June 1863. These persons appear to have told him that their former services would be allowed to count towards pension in the same way as if they had formerly been drawing their salaries from Government, inasmuch as the offices in which they had been employed previously to the amalgamation of the Courts had since become regular fixed establishments of Government.

3. Moorogoo Pillay did not intend to represent as an existing fact that any of such employes had really been allowed to reckon former services towards pension; but he and his informants appear to have taken it for granted, rightly or wrongly I cannot say, that such would be the effect of the arrangement under which such employes have become Government servants.

4. Moorogoo Pillay has brought to my notice the case of P. Narrainsawmy Naidoo, who was employed as a Writer under Mr. Clement Dale, the Receiver of the Carnatic property, for about 11 years. He was paid by Mr. Dale out of the commission received by him as Receiver. By an Order of Government, dated 30th January 1867, No. 113, Public Department, Narrainsawmy Naidoo was exempted from passing the Uncovenanted Civil Service Examination.
