Government of Madras.

Public DEPARTMENT.

G.O. No.	971	Press Mis.
Dated	6-8-	1967

Not to be folded or roughly handled

Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Department, 6th August 1867.

No. 65. Read the following letter from the Secretary to the Committee for the Examination of Assistants, to the Acting Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George; dated Madras, 5th August 1867, No. 434.

I am directed to report that an examination of Assistant Collectors was held on the 27th and 28th June.

2. Sixteen gentlemen presented themselves for the Second Standard, and twenty-two for the First.

3. The packet of examination papers reached Palamcottah opened, and the local Committee decided not to allow the examination to proceed in consequence. Five gentlemen, two in the Second and three in the First Standard, were thus deprived of the opportunity of passing. Special papers have been prepared, and an extraordinary examination will be held on the 16th instant for the benefit of these gentlemen, and of the Assistant Superintendent of Police at Jeypore, who was prevented from appearing at Vizagapatam on the 27th June by no fault of his own.

4. Of the remaining gentlemen two have passed according to the Second Standard, and five according to the First.

5. The Committee have arranged them according to merit as follows :—

Second Standard.

Mr. H. E. Stokes.

„ A. Cruickshank.

First Standard.

Mr. F. E. Hall.

„ C. J. Knox.

„ R. Rice.

„ S. T. McCarthy.

„ H. F. Clogstoun.

6. Mr. Clogstoun was exempted from examination in Revenue subjects, under G. O., 24th October 1864, No. 1356, as an Assistant Superintendent of Police.

7. I am to remark that the work of the Examining Sub-Committees has been peculiarly heavy on this occasion. The Judicial members, for instance, have set twelve different question papers, and when the special examination is over they will have examined 117 answers.

8. The Committee recommend that, in accordance with paragraph 2 of the Revised Rules for the Examination of Assistants, the increased allowance of Rupees 175 per mensem may be passed to Messrs. Stokes and Cruickshank from the date of the examination.

No. 66. ORDER THEREON, 6th August 1867, No. 971.

The Governor in Council directs that the additional allowance of Rupees (175) one hundred and seventy-five per mensem be passed to Messrs. Stokes and Cruickshank from the 28th June 1867, the date of their examination.

(True Extract).
